Prima Donna Who Is to Appear Here on the Last Night of Chautauqua Week

ALICE NIELSEN OF THE METROPOLITAN AND BOSTON OPERA COMPANIES.

HE initial announcement of the appearance of Alice Nielsen, prima donna of the Metropolitan and Boston Opera Companies, at 120 Redpath Chautauquas this season has been widedly heralded throughout the musical world. This is the first instance in which so celebrated a musical artist has appeared on a great chain of Chautauquas. It is safe to say, however, that with increasing demand among Chautauqua patrons for the best in music many other tours of world famous musicians will fol-low in years to come. Leading musical journals have commented upon this tour as an innovation which will open a new and breader field to the greatest musical talent

Alice Nielsen, unlike so many of our greatest artists, was not born in Europe, but is a native of Nashville, Tenn. She is a beautiful southern woman of whom the south is especially proud. Her fame as a singer is world-

SUNDAY WORK

Can Produce More Munitions of Ask Permission So Men Can Serve War If Given Regular Rest Periods.

LONDON April 8.—The abolition of all Sunday work in munition factories is strongly urged by the General Federation of Trade Unions in a resolution, copies of which are being sent to Government officials and

o all employes of labor "The management committee of the Federation," says the resolution, "has evidence of serious physical and mental overstrai and increasing sick-ness rates, and it believes that the aggregate output of munitions of wa. would be increased if labor and fa cillies were properly organized and, proper rest periods provided. "The committee has evidence that cases of breakdown, due to overwork have occurred in some of the factories in the North. Among girl workers, who have been required to worl at high pressure, fainting fits have been compact.

"In one care where it was alleged that 120 employes of a munition fac-tory did not turn up to work on Mon-day, we have discovered that a large number of them were teetotallers and workers in the temperance movement and they had simp'; stayed at hom to catch up on their necessary sleep.

UNIONS OPPOSE | WOMEN TO DRIVE AMBULANCES

Their Country at Front.

PARIS, April 9.—The French Wo-men's Automobile club has begun enrolling women motorists, aviators and balloonists to form a brigade of am-bulances for the French army. Ap-plications are coming at the rate of 100 a day.

The organization aims to find enough capable women conductors to replace all men now driving ambu-lances who are capable of rendering better services at the front. Four women aviators, including Mme. Pallier, Barroness de la Roche and Mile. Helene Dutrieu, who had been refused admission to the avia-tion corps, have joined this move-Many applicants for enrollment have been made by women motorcyclists who want to act as driv ers at the front!
